PEPID presents EM Board Review flashcards from the Center for Emergency Medical Education (CEME). Emergency physicians now have the freedom and flexibility to study anytime, anywhere for their certification or recertification exams from their iPhone, iPod Touch, or BlackBerry—eliminating the need to carry around a heavy textbook.

Your on-the-go study resource

Hundreds of EM Board Review flashcards include everything you need to prepare for your certification or recertification exam on-the-go. Our Q&A format makes reviewing essential information fast and easy for busy physicians and residents.
